About APICS

APICS—The Educational Society for Resource Management is an international organization offering a full range of programs and materials on the latest business management concepts and techniques. These materials, developed under the direction of management experts, are available nationally and internationally.

Since 1957, APICS members have been at the forefront of such management and manufacturing achievements. The widespread use of material requirements planning (MRP) in the workplace and the introduction of dynamic philosophies affect all areas of manufacturing management.

APICS' internationally recognized Certified in Production and Inventory Management (CPIM) program is a standard by which companies gauge individual knowledge and understanding of the production and inventory control concepts and methods. APICS administers thousands of CPIM exams worldwide annually.

Answering the need for a more cross-functional, integrated workforce, APICS developed the Certified in Integrated Resource Management (CIRM) educational and self-assessment program. In conjunction with the CIRM program, APICS offers a variety of educational programs and services that provide information regarding the interdependencies of all business disciplines.

In addition, members receive the monthly APICS—The Performance Advantage and the quarterly Production and Inventory Management Journal. The journal is sent to all members free upon request.

SIGs

With the guidance of dedicated volunteers, APICS has created specific interest groups (SIGs) to further research and to continue developing the body of knowledge relative to specific industries and areas of interest. Membership in APICS SIGs will give you valuable benefits including

- Newsletters
- Article reprints
- Peer networking
- Informative surveys and bibliographies
- Workshops, seminars, and symposia
- Expertise from industry leaders.

Membership in any one of APICS' SIGs is only $15 per year. If you choose to join, this cost is automatically added to your annual APICS membership dues. (SIG membership dues are subject to change without notice.)

As the primary source for management education products and services, APICS has earned the respect and reliance of nearly 70,000 individual and corporate members. For more information, or to become a member, call APICS Customer Service at (800) 444-APICS (2742) or (703) 354-8851.

Safeguarding Member Privacy

As a professional organization, APICS is obligated to safeguard its members from exposure to unwanted mailings that may stem from their memberships. However, APICS is authorized to use its mail lists to be responsive to customers and to generate revenue through the professional management of these mail lists. Anyone wishing to trade or rent the APICS mail list or a portion of the list must request consideration in writing.

Telemarketing use of APICS mail lists by sources other than APICS is strictly prohibited.

Many members benefit from the offers and information made available by outside sources that are allowed access to APICS mail lists. However, if you do not wish to receive additional offers and information, you can have your name removed from any rented or traded mail lists. To do so, please check the box in section 1 of the membership application, or call APICS Customer Service at (800) 444-APICS (2742) or (703) 354-8851.

APICS does not currently participate in or contribute to any lobbying efforts or organizations.
